This collection is for the woman who is just emerging from the cloud of the pandemic.

She is ready to dress up and live life again, ready to grow and take advantage of opportunities. She's looking for new experiences understanding that there's more to life than the rat race.

All the pieces are handmade and produced sustainably in our small factory in Lagos.
